Membership of the Mongolian-British Chamber of Commerce

The Mongolian-British Chamber of Commerce (MBCC) is a non-profit organisation established in 2009 to foster and maintain strong business links between Mongolia and the United Kingdom.

The MBCC is under the chairmanship of Mr John Grogan and its prime objective is to promote, protect and strengthen bi-lateral trade and commerce between the two countries.

The MBCC aims to provide a professional and social framework for business people who wish to be introduced to, and become part of, the British – Mongolian business culture and community.

As such it operates as a business networking hub for the community and for British companies with interests in Mongolia. The MBCC's objectives include:

- the promotion of investment, joint ventures, training, research and development opportunities between companies in Mongolia and the United Kingdom;
- to liaise and maintain close ties with companies and relevant Government authorities in both Mongolia and the United Kingdom;
- to promote, organise and hold seminars and trade related fairs and to assist in the promotion, organisation and holding of such events for the purpose of exchanging personnel, information, expertise, business opportunities and methodology;
- to present , express and give effect to the views and opinions of its members on matters affecting their interests at international, national, regional and local government level; and
- to contribute towards of trade publications of all types, i.e. to carry out market research in relevant areas and to collect, publish, circulate or make known statistics, opinions and information relating to its members' interest.

If you would like to join the MBCC please fill in the following membership form and return it:
